

i l p l p n e u 44

Scale Hill

Ambleside

May I venture to return as I am at home!

1. 1. 1921

My dear Mr. Harris

It is indeed kind of

You to send me Sweet

Greetings for both Christmas

Mr. & Mrs. Harris very much ashamed to have done nothing myself but I have had such an anxious & busy time that beyond getting a belated letter sent my home people I have sent out no greetings at all!

 However I am looking forward with hope now I am very thankful to have dear Mrs Mason really better on this Fair Day.

We are carrying a table beside her bed & going to have dinner altogether - 4 of us, because this Parish is here.

on this lovely borrowed day we took her for a short drive.

She got up from the bed-back when she was none the worse for it.

No, I do not think this illness has been the result of the horse falling that day. Such things don't affect her. It was the long spell of active propaganda work in the autumn. Those two or three meetings were a very heavy tax on her.

We have greatly enjoyed together your letter to me & the robin verses to Baby Ann!

"Baby Ann" is a fortunate person to have such charming verses sent to her. This stanza has been read to her twice already, she enjoyed them so much. May little Ann grow up in the sweet intimacy with the Dipper which the picture for her!

with ^{warm} ~~much~~ affectionate good wishes for 1921,

Dear, affd ones,

Elsie Kiletrung

(2nd)

House of Education,
Ambleside,
Westmorland.

1. 1. 1924

brother's.
always affd? you
Mr. H. H. H.
(H. H. H.)

My dear friend

How nice to have your charming letter & the dear "little Ann" poem. It's lovely. I thought my "Homey Woman" would bump with your humor. She is a dear, is she not?

This Mrs. H. H. H. went out for a drive on with the car on Wednesday.

Thank you for all your kind words & sweet wishes. I too, could say kind words & send loving wishes for the New Year.

I am most glad that you are again able to get to Fox Hill as that means that you are better. I too am mending, delightfully & hope to be quite normal in a week or two & am a very thankful i 3 p l p n e u 44

Mr. Harris
Rugby Cottage
Ambleside

i3p2 pneu44

Scale How,
Ambleside.

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS,
BARIUM,
LLANGAMMARCH WELLS,
TELEPHONE No 2.

13pBpneu 44

THE LAKE HOTEL & PUMP HOUSE, LLANGAMMARCH WELLS,
BRECONSHIRE.

19.8.1921

With love - from your affectionate
Dad & Mother

My dear Mr. Harris

Mr. Mason asks me to send you her love & thanks for your letters & all the news.
She thinks Cardiff quite a safe place to leave our secrets in!
We wonder if B. & S. &
Boyle & Miller are or Board

Education!

at least this Manor is able to have baths. There was no water power to pump up the Barium water but now the Reservoir has 10 ft. instead of 3 inches which was all there was 3 weeks ago.

Life goes much as usual here.
This Manor is very busy dictating to the Typewriter which with baths & letters the day is gone before we have nearly finished. From we too had a good deal as well.

We have just been enjoying Mrs. Rosita Forbes' The Secret of the Sahara: Kufana - a wonderful story of a wonderful adventure. We have also much enjoyed Admiral Sims' Victory at Sea & especially Madame Duclaux's Victor Hugo. The Memoirs of Victor Little too, have been very interesting.

last week

Mr. Strickland's sudden death was a great shock to them Mamie & she has two bad days ~~last week~~ in consequence but the folks have already begun to work their usual magic & to-day she is looking better than she has looked for many months.

We have some pleasant, quiet, acquaintances here who are not exigent in the way of talk which is a comfort!

that is a blue teapot which I can never live up to! (Do you remember Punch - "Oh, Augustus Shall we ever live up to it, i.e. the Chelsea teapot - he had just brought in.)

I thank you dear friend for cherishing sweet thoughts of a person who finds herself very welcome.

And I have never written to thank you for the Christmas

Scale How,
Ambleside.

+ jasmine that gladdened Christmas day & the New Year.

They brought a sort of wholesomeness from Rydal College. + also the aroma of good will.

You know what a time we have had with 'flu' - such a lot of cases in the two houses but we are very thankful that most of them have been antonine's

I am particularly glad of your news of Mr. Bannister.
The last I heard was not good. He does never spend himself without - any stint.

My two friends, Miss Parrish & Miss H. always come home full of news when they get the chance of a gossip with you.

How interesting Mr. Cornhill is again! so many thanks of her mother's friend prays you

My dear Mr. Mason.

Miss K's son

is p1 pneu 44
+ footwork

Scale How,
Ambleside.

10. 4. 1822

dear Mrs. Harris

How amusing

about - your Cornhill!

to go to Newby Bridge on Tuesday but I would return you to Cornhill by post.

Yes indeed - dear

Mrs. Herbert Bell's death is very very distressing.

 Miss B. has just come back from the funeral where were many of our friends. Poor Mr.
 Herbert-Bell!

Dear Miss Arnold,
 How very sad it is.

but I gather with pleasure that she can read. is the G? A very happy task to you dear friend

Scale How,
Ambleside.

July 13^B. 1822

My dear Mr. Harris

I had hoped to call

& wish you good by,

but we go tomorrow morning & I have not managed it.

I must send an affectionate farewell by post.

I wonder how we had our summer & are we now to have the temperate weather we have read of in the South.

I left the very interesting Dr. Cornhill with Miss Arnold & heard she was slightly better.

We go to our old haunts
"Lake Hotel."

Llangunnock -

Scale How,
Ambleside.

When we hope to have a visit - from Miss Williams who comes about Aug. 18th.

Mr. Franklin comes for two or three days next week.

It is not - 'glad' to have summer & high without summer sunning - but - how we eat our cake?

Mr. Rawnsley is as you know hoping to be well enough to allow of their autumn visit. But he has had a very bad year, dear Mary.

I hope you will have your usual fair summer cheered by many friends.

With love from us both, affec^tly yours,
 C. M. Mason

44 p 1 p new 44

Scale How, N.
Amblestide.

to a host of old
Swans
to our present gladly.

Newly B. April 24
Wm. Harris
to which your affection
Wm. Harris

Just a word of greeting from these remote regions where at the moment it is blowing pretty fine - but we have had very pleasant sunshiny weather & I am all

It better for a little change.

He has been reading & enjoying Colins, & this very interesting No. of the Cornhill, for which many thanks.

I hope life is using the dear friend well, & But there is fairly good news from ~~the~~ Fort Daw

18 ртеи 44

(44)

Letters from Miss Mason & Miss Kitching 1921-2

A. M. Harris